SYNOPSIS

Thea, a librarian, is new in town. New job, strange people, family and friends far away. In her loneliness, concentrating only on herself, she begins to feel that her environment is a danger for her.

Then one day, while in the changing room of a swimming pool, she finds an envelope with holiday photos. She recognizes herself in the background of one of the photos, in a place she has never been to. Thea tries to solve the puzzle, but doubting the facts, she begins to lose grip of herself. She drifts away on a journey which leads her deeper and deeper into the mysterious photo.
